National Recreational Four Wheel Drive Vehicle Policy

The Australian National Four Wheel Drive Council supports the traditional recreation of four wheel driving, and in particular that:

1. Federal, State and Local Government agencies acknowledge that four wheel-drive vehicle use is a legitimate form of recreation.
2. Four wheel-drivers are entitled to equitable access to public land, whilst having regard to minimal impact practices and the rights of other land users.
3. Federal, State, Local Government agencies and recreational four wheel drive vehicle organisations recognise that education is a shared responsibility in the following areas:
  - Driver training
  - Minimal impact practices
  - Environmental sustainable practices
  - Cultural and heritage awareness
4. Federal, State, Local Government agencies and recreational four wheel drive vehicle organisations recognise that planning, development and management of recreational areas is a shared responsibility.
5. Federal, State and Local Government land managers support the concept and development of uniform land zoning for public land.
6. Environmentally sustainable four wheel driving is a shared responsibility.

THIS POLICY SUPPORTS THE
AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL FOUR WHEEL DRIVE COUNCIL
CODES OF CONDUCT.

Produced by the Australian National Four Wheel Drive Council in the interest of promoting responsible recreational four wheel drive vehicle use.
